Savings of a Quarter to a Third in the Lace Curtain Sale.

NOT Lace Curtains of an inferior quality or undesirable pattern, but each and every pair desirable and high grade, perfect in every respect, except in some cases they may be slightly soiled or mused, but this will not affect their service.

Renaissance Lace Curtains, pair... $5.00 to $20.00

Cluny Lace Curtains, pair... $1.75 to $6.00

Arabian Lace Curtains, pair... $6.00 to $22.50

We do not quote a price comparison on any of these curtains—that is, a price that they would ordinarily command and were produced to sell for—but no one will be mistaken in the values, and no one, once they see them, will deny the amount of the savings, which we modestly estimate at one-fourth to one-third.

Fourth floor—G st.

Bed Blankets—The Special August Sale Permits Important Savings.

SLIGHT imperfections account for the low prices, but whilst they are sufficient for makers and distributors who guard their reputations closely to make reductions of a fourth to a third, yet the defects or faults are of such a trivial nature that fully half of them are not noticeable; the others will have no bearing on the wear and can be easily remedied.

Single and Three-quarter Size Blankets, Pair, $2.00, $2.25, $3.00, $3.50, and $4.00.

Double-bed Size Blankets, Pair, $3.00, $4.50, and $5.00.

Every pair of Blankets in this sale marked at prices one-fourth to one-third less than they would be if strictly perfect.

Dancers Out in Full Force.

The delightfully cool weather of the past fortnight is being taken advantage of by hundreds of dancers at Chevy Chase Lake, the pastime not now being attended with the discomfort that accompanies warm weather. The termination of the evening concert is eagerly awaited by the young people, and the music shell to the pavilion is a signal for a rush to the dance floor. Encouraged by the weather, the number of dancers quite usually exceeds the program numbers. Being under cover, the weather in no way interferes with the dancers, and "rain or shine" the pavilion is sure to be taxed to its capacity.

Notable among the many other amusements afforded at "The Lake" are motion pictures, which are displayed in the rustic theater; swings, a large merry-go-round, and boating. For those who go in for more strenuous diversions, there is a well-kept bowling alley and a shooting gallery.

Englishwomen Face Bar of Justice for Attacks on Premier.

Dublin, Aug. 6.—Four of the eight suffragettes who were arrested here upon the occasion of the visit of Premier Asquith, in the middle of July, were arraigned to-day charged with trying to burn the Theater Royal with people, and also charged with attempting to take Mr. Asquith's life by hurling a hatchet at him while he was riding through the city in an open carriage with his wife.

Among the defendants is Gladys Evans, described by the police as the "most insistent upon defending herself before the court. The other two defendants gave the names of Miss Emma Baker and Miss Mary Capner. It was decided to try the Evans first, as a large quantity of gunpowder and dynamite was found in her house. It is believed she had planned to blow up the Theater Royal.

HONOR FOR MIDSHIPMAN.

M. L. Worrell Commended for Bravery During Accident.

Commendation of Midshipman M. L. Worrell, of the battleship Mississippi, was announced at the Navy Department yesterday, as a result of the bravery the young officer displayed on the occasion of the cracking of the shaft of the battleship Mississippi on July 25.

It is stated that Midshipman Worrell's quick action in the emergency averted much damage and probably prevented loss of life. Such commendation from the Navy Department, while common for enlisted men in the service, is rarely bestowed publicly on an officer.
